EDITORIAL NOTES.

Bar silver .623.

C. P. Huntington seems disposed to assist the I. A. to go East.

Foster's storm hit New York yesterday and many casualties have been reported.

What the goldbugs mean by "sound money" is stuff that will ring when they are shoveling it into their vaults.

A member of the Industrial Army was run over by a train and killed near Ogden while washing his face. The moral is obvious.

The question whether a female claiming to be a "lady" was libeled by being called a "woman" has been decided by a British judge and jury in the negative.

Jackson is out with a card offering to fight Corbett any way he wants, in private, in public, or a limited contest, for a purse or a side bet; in fact Jackson offers to do everything but get whipped.

The lawyers in the Pollard-Breckinridge case are going after the plaintiff on one side and the defendant on the other in such a scorching manner, that the jury will find it hard work to determine on a verdict.

A jury in San Francisco has decided that the Dance de Vantre, alias the stomach dance, alias the muscle dance, alias the Hoola Hoola, is all right, and may continue to be admired by the clamoring public, who will continue to clamor at 25 cents per clam.

Does anybody think for an instant that the several thousand women in San Francisco who signed a petition to the San Francisco dailies protesting against sensationalism in newspapers, are not reading the accounts of the Pollard-Breckinridge suit? Yes, we guess not.

Fruit trees are beginning to blossom, leaves are putting themselves forth, the sun shines every day, the frogs are croaking every night, the chirp of the cricket is heard in the land, the gentle zephyrs are softly sighing, and the grass is beginning to show up. In view of the above we are constrained to remark in the language of the poet: "Spring has come."

The Heath Case.

Fresno, April 11.—Notwithstanding the great interest felt in the Heath case nothing could be learned of the proceedings in the jury-room this morning, and up to this time nothing is known. Yesterday the jury stood eleven to one against Heath, and as far as known the one man is still holding out.

Judge Webb, who is now sitting in the case for Judge Shaw, says that he will not discharge the jury so long as there is a possibility of an agreement, if it takes several days yet.

Later—The following dispatch was received at this office last evening: "Heath jury discharged. Stood ten for conviction and two for acquittal."

Fitzsimmons Ready.

New York, April 11.—Fitzsimmons said to a reporter yesterday that he would be willing to take on either Dan Creedon, Joe Choyinski or any middle-weight or heavy-weight, barring Peter Jackson, to a finish or in private, if the side wager and purse are made anyway enticing. Fitz thinks that Choyinski or Creedon can't refuse to meet him in private, provided he offers to meet them for the side wager alone, which he will do if either boxer shows any inclination to make a match with him.

"I will give Corbett the same chances," continued Fitz, "and bet him $10,000 on the outside I whip him. Or I'll engage in a limited round bout with him before he sails for Europe. I don't want him to think that I am making any bluffs; I mean everything I say, and will back up my statements with solid cash. If the National Sporting Club offers a purse for a fight between Ted Pichard and myself I will go to England, providing expenses are allowed me."
